Carrie E. Reed (Author of A Tang Miscellany)

This entry begins with a brief introduction of the nature of the literary miscellany and an equally brief survey of the compiling of the literary miscellany in East Asia, before turning to the development of the genre in Koryŏ and Chosŏn Korea. It then provides an overview of how the literary miscellany is understood as genre by scholars working on pre-modern Korean literature.

Basalawarmi - Wikipedia

In an introduction to an anthology titled Dale Carnegie's Scrapbook, Dorothy Carnegie explains, "Dale Carnegie was a man who loved the tang of a salty phrase. In all of his reading, the hooks of his attention were barbed to catch the pungent paragraph, the apt expression, the sweeping sentence that thereafter remained fixed in his memory."
