1 Answer. I know what you would like to here but here is my answer: I don't want to work in an environment where I'm being watched and spied; if I am reporting every minor mistake, then I would expect same attitude in return. If the co-worker makes a minor correctable mistake, we could discuss it amongst team mates, but if that employee don't show he/she is learning from it, then I would have to report that.
