Like its writer,
Haruki Murakami,
'Hear the Wind
Sing' is an odd
and peculiar book. Equally
the film is just as odd and does
a great job at capturing the spirit of the writer as well as being faithful to the book. Though it is far from Murakami's strongest material and it's far from something that translates well to the screen.

In terms of storytelling,

Where To Download Hear The Wind Sing

Hear the Wind Sing is relatively pointless. I can see why Murakami has suppressed any attempts at rereleasing it in English. Publishing it at this point in his career would throw people off if they weren't aware it's his first work.

Nevertheless,
it's not totally
worthless.
