Leading Libraries: Transforming library leadership ...

Leadership in Libraries is both intensely personal and incredibly informative. [...] The best and most useful parts of this book were its readability and applicability. [...] A copy of this title should be on the shelf of any library — public, academic, or otherwise — that is interested in developing and strengthening the leadership of its people. While Kumaran tells us that the focus of the book is on first-generation, visible minorities, I believe that it will serve not only this ...
