So, why is this so important to women? Marriage is just a piece of paper, right? That's what they tell us. But I cannot state this more emphatically—it is so much more than a piece of paper. We see this innate understanding that marriage brings a higher level of commitment in the gay community's push for the right to do so.

Is Marriage Just a Piece of Paper? - HeavenEmotions
Christi Rudolph wrote, "A wedding is a 'piece of paper' but a marriage is no such thing. A marriage is the commitment that two people enter into that state they will honor, protect, love, sacrifice all they have to the other person."

Is Marriage Just a 'Piece of Paper'? | FamilyLife®
Marriage is more than a public declaration of love and commitment. It is more than the tax, legal, and medical benefits it provides. It is more than a ceremony, a symbol, a tradition. These are all important aspects, yes. But they don't tell the whole story. Marriage is saying, "Of everyone in the world, I choose you."

If Marriage Is Just a Piece Of Paper, Why Does It Even ...
However, there really is more to marriage than a piece of paper. That is because if a couple is married it gives couples many more options legally in a number of various areas. Couples that believe marriage is just a piece of paper are not only short changing themselves, but their partner as well.

To demean marriage as "just a piece of paper" shows that you don't know diddly about how important some pieces of paper are. Please educate yourself, my sister; you have a LOT to learn. If your commitment to your "partner" and any children you might have is a strong, lasting one, why WOULDN'T you marry?

Best Response EVER to the "Marriage is Just a Piece of ...
MARRIAGE IS NOT A PIECE OF PAPER. Your wedding is declaring that this is your person and you are in for the ride 'til the end of the line. Marriage is living out that promise daily, in ways big and small. That piece of paper is just how the government acknowledges the relationship you're already living in.
