Civil services are one of the most famous and respectable career options among the youth. Civil Service is the only body of government officials who are employed in civil occupations that are neither political nor judicial. Public Service Commissions of both central and state governments are the main recruiters of graduate civil service aspirants. The Civil Servants look after the administration of the state. Their role is not only confined to administration. Implementation and adherence of rules and regulations in their jurisdiction comprise their main task.

The University Grants Commission of India is a statutory body set up by the Government of India in accordance to the UGC Act 1956 under Ministry of Human Resource Development, and is charged with coordination, determination and maintenance of standard of higher education. The National Eligibility Test (NET), also known as UGC NET or NTA-UGC-NET, is the test for determining the eligibility for the post of Assistant Professor and or Junior Research Fellowship (JRF) award in Indian universities and colleges. This national level entrance exam is conducted twice every year in the month of June and December. Archaeology Post- Graduates usually opt the UGC NET Archaeology subject to pursue their career either as junior research fellows or professors or both. National Testing Agency (NTA) will conduct UGC NET exam for Assistant Professor and for junior research fellowship. The UGC NET test will consist of two papers, paper 1 and 2. Paper 1 remains common for all subjects and consists of questions from research, teaching & General Aptitude on the other hand paper 2 will consist of questions from only Archaeology subjects.
