From literary journalist Sara Mansfield Taber comes a deep and wondrous memoir of her exotic childhood as the daughter of a covert CIA operative. Born under an Assumed Name portrays the thrilling and confusing life of a girl growing up abroad in a world of secrecy and diplomacy—and the heavy toll it takes on her and her father. As Taber leads us on a tour through the alluring countries to which her father is assigned, we track two parallel stories—those of young Sara and her Cold War spy father. Sara struggles for normalcy as the family is relocated to cities in North America, Europe, and Asia, and the constant upheaval eventually exacts its price. Only after a psychiatric hospitalization at age sixteen in a U.S. Air Force hospital with shell-shocked Vietnam War veterans does she come to a clear sense of who she is. Meanwhile, Sara's sweet-natured, philosophical father becomes increasingly disillusioned with his work, his agency, and his country. This is the question at the heart of this elegant and sophisticated work: what does it mean to be an American? In this fascinating, painful, and ultimately exhilarating coming-of-age story, young Sara confronts generosity, greatness, and tragedy—all that America heaps on the world.

This volume offers a multidisciplinary study of the HIV/AIDS crisis in the French context from the 1980s to today through the concept of rawness. Exploring vulnerability, exposure, risk, citizenship, and trauma in relation to disease, this collection provides important tools to understand and discuss both the ongoing HIV and SARS-CoV-2 pandemics.

From the author of bestselling "How to Argue and Win Every Time" comes a new classic about two Native American brothers torn apart--a legal thriller, a love story, and a visionary work that examines deeply the values of life and death.

Available in print and in electronic format via OneKey, the SAM provides a range of 5-skills practice that reinforces and builds upon the material presented in the textbook. The workbook section of the SAM features sentence building and completion exercises, fill-ins, realia and art based activities, sequenced writing practice, reading comprehension activities, and additional practice with the cultural theme of the Venez chez nous! lesson. Correlated to recorded material on the Audio CDs to Accompany the SAM, the lab manual offers a progression of form- to content-based listening practice. The new video manual section provides pre, during, and post-viewing activities that focus students' attention on both the linguistic and cultural content of the Chez nous Video.

"After her young husband's untimely death, Army veteran Cassie Gale decides to take a few days of solitude in the Alaska wilderness before she starts her new job. But when she fails to show up on her first day and her dog is discovered injured at her wrecked campsite, her father knows that this is much more than a camping trip gone awry. As it turns out, Cassie's not the first person to disappear without a trace in Alaska's northern interior. Bears. Wolves. Avalanches. Frostbite. Starvation. There are many ways to die in here. But not all disappearances can be explained. Cassie's is one of them, along with a number of other outdoor enthusiasts who have vanished in recent years. Regaining consciousness in a Russian prison, Cassie finds herself trapped in a system designed to ensure that no one ever escapes alive. It will require all her grit and skills to survive. Meanwhile, her father rushes to outrun the clock, scouring thousands of acres, only to realize she's been taken by a far more nefarious adversary-one with the power of the Eastern Bloc behind it. Ties to his past life, one full of secrets, threaten to surface. He knows there's a price to be paid, but he's determined it won't be his daughter"--

Crime Lab Report compiles the most relevant and popular articles that appeared in this ongoing periodical between 2007 and 2017. Articles have been categorized by theme to serve as chapters, with an introduction at the beginning of each chapter and a description of the events that inspired each article. The author concludes the compilation with a reflection on Crime Lab Report, the retired periodical, and the future of forensic science as the 21st Century unfolds. Intended for forensic scientists, prosecutors, defense attorneys and even students studying forensic science or law, this compilation provides much needed information on the topics at hand. Presents a comprehensive look 'behind the curtain' of the forensic sciences from the viewpoint of someone working within the field Educates practitioners and laboratory administrators, providing talking points to help them respond intelligently to questions and criticisms, whether on the witness stand or when meeting with politicians and/or policymakers Captures an important period in the history of forensic science and criminal justice in America

Siesta Key's Detective Meri Ann Fehr's mother disappeared fifteen years before she receives a troubling call from an Idaho detective. He believes he's found the missing woman's jewelry lying beside skeletal remains on a high plateau on the outskirts of Boise. Eager to end years of uncertainty and to jump-start the cold case, Meri Ann flies west. The Basque detective handling the case would rather she stay in sunny Florida--not so the killer Her arrival sets in motion a horrific, calculated plan. Final Grave keeps the reader guessing right up to the final sentence. A chilling who done it. JB Hamilton Queen -author of Imminent Reprisal and Masters of the Breed Bernitt's deft touch with detail put the reader firmly in the great northwest, where her characters jump to life. Myriad plot twists make this a page turner. Madonna Dries Christensen - author of Masquerade: The Swindler Who Conned J.Edgar Hoover
