Skippyjon Jones is a remarkable and well illustrated set of picture books for children. I find these books great for my young daughter who is an excellent reader in first grade, but not quite ready for chapter books. There are a lot of words and the fake Spanish, while potentially problematic for some, helps for my daughter to read out larger ...

In observance of Banned Books Week, today I was showing a class of juniors the most challenged books of 2018. #8 on the list is Skippyjon Jones, challenged “for depicting stereotypes of Mexican culture.” There was a wave of sentimental support for Skippyjon, mostly from Hispanic students. Because I didn’t know the book, I briefly stopped the presentation and made a show of putting it on ...
